

PLYMOUTH ANECDOTE.—When has a man got enough? Never till he gets a little more. A very good story of old embargo times and the war of 1812, was told us the other day. Under the impulse of the removal of the embargo, there was a sudden rise in the value of property, and such a demand for it that merchandise was sometimes carried off from vessels before the owners arrived at their place of business; and the parties taking it came in afterward to say that they were at the owners' mercy, and must pay what they chose to ask. A brig was lying at Boston harbor, which had come up from Plymouth just before the embargo was laid, fit for sea. The Plymouth owner thought that it was a good time to sell the brig, and sent up his son for the purpose, telling him to demand eight thousand dollars for her, and not take less than six. John went to Boston, found how things stood, sold the brig in a moment, and hurried home, elated with his bargain. As he neared the house, he saw the old man marching up and down the piazza, and presently he rushed out to meet his son and hear the result of the sale:

"Have you sold the brig, John?"
"Yes, father."
"For how much, John?"
"For ten thousand dollars!"
"Ten thousand dollars!" cried the old man, with staring eyes, at hearing a price more than double what the vessel cost. "Ten thousand dollars! I'll bet you've sold her to some swindler, and don't care what the price is, and never means to pay his notes!"
"Notes, did you say, father? Why, there are no notes in the case. I got the money and put it in the bank. Draw, and you will get it."
The old gentleman's excitement was suddenly cooled, and as the ruling passion rose in its place, he said:
"I say, John, couldn't you have got a little more?"

A WISE FATHER.
Many years ago, a wealthy and honored merchant of this city, in speaking of his own career, said: "I so much doubt the influence of wealth upon the youthful mind, that I have long since made up my mind never to leave wealth to my children. My ambition for them is that they should be happy. They can never be so without being useful in their day and generation, and I believe that the worst introduction a young man can have to the path of true happiness, is by the gate of wealth. There are too many by-roads leading off from it to pleasure, the toll-gates of which open to gold; and at the end of which is nothing but shame and misery. I shall give you, my dear boy, turning to his son, 'the best education I can afford. I shall settle upon you barely enough to keep you from want or dependence. For the rest you must depend upon virtue, energy, and a conscientious discharge of duty.'"

He kept his word, and dying left several sons behind him, each of whom is now an ornament to his country, and occupies a useful and honorable position. How much nobler a lesson the father of such a father, and such children teaches, than his wealth in the accumulation of a fortune which they receive at his hands, only to scatter abroad again, father and children, dying and living, alike useless and unhonored.—N. Y. Ledger.

A WRINKLE ABOUT THE AGE OF HORSES.—A few days ago we met a gentleman from Alabama, who gave us a piece of information in regard to ascertaining the age of a horse, after he or she has passed the ninth year, which was new to us, and will be to us sure, to most of our readers. It is this: after the horse is nine years old, a wrinkle comes over the eyelid at the upper corner of the lower lid, and every year thereafter he has one well defined wrinkle for each year over nine. If for instance, a horse has three wrinkles, he is twelve; if four, he is thirteen. Add the number of wrinkles to nine, and you will always get it. So says the gentleman; and he is confident it will never fail. As a good many people have horses over nine, it is easily tried. If true, the horse dentist must give up his trade.—Southern Planter.

INDEPENDENCE OF PRINCIPLE.
Lord Eschew was distinguished through life for independence of principle, for right adherence to truth. He once explained the rule of his conduct, which ought to be deeply engaged in every heart. He said "it was the first command and counsel of my earliest youth, always to do what my conscience told me to be a duty, and leave the consequence to God. I shall carry with me the memory, and I trust the practice, of this parental lesson to the grave. I have hitherto followed it, and have no reason to complain that my obedience to it has been any sacrifice. I have found it, on the contrary the road of prosperity and wealth, and I shall point the same path to my children for their pursuit."

RETURN OF DR. DAVIS.—Dr. James Davis, the gallant leader of the old line forces in 1854, for Congress in the 8th District, has been driven out of Kansas, and comes home to engage in the fight for Freedom and Fremont. He will be welcomed everywhere, and Old Lineism will wait before him like mushrooms under an August sun. A friend in Tippecanoe writes as follows:

"Our whole community is in a high state of excitement, growing out of the sudden return of James Davis from Kansas, he having been driven out with his family. He was here in 1854, Dan. Case's opponent, and a pro-slavery man out and out, but now commences the canvass in a charge for Freedom and Fremont that will most certainly exterminate Old Lineism in the 8th District. His mark will be made wherever he goes."

The St. Louis Democrat says that corn, on the rivers, is selling at twenty-five cents a bushel, and in the interior it is bought at fifteen cents in the field, by hog drivers, who are buying up all the hogs, intending to feed them for the St. Louis and Cincinnati markets. The crop of corn is a fair average one.

It is a new and untried article, but one that is the result of a long and careful study of the human system, and its reputation and sale is unrivaled by any similar preparations extant. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well known Physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a careful perusal of the Almanac, published annually by the proprietor, and to be had gratis of any of his Agents, cannot but satisfy the most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained. Principal office and Manufactory, No. 96 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Indiana Testimony.
H. S. NORTON says: "Send me another supply of Bitters immediately. They sell rapidly, and give the most unbounded satisfaction in every case. I do not know of but one instance in which I have sold one bottle that the person did not return for more, and in that case, the one bottle cured the person."

GOSNOLD, April 18, 1853.
Dr. C. M. Jackson says: "I have used several bottles of your German Bitters, myself and in my family, and I find it the quickest and most effectual remedy for nervous diseases of any kind I have ever used in my practice or family. Myself and several members of my family are now cured of long standing complaints, and it is the only medicine we depend upon for relief, as it never fails. I have prescribed it with unfailing success in a number of cases."

JACKSON & BECK say: "We have sold all our German Bitters, and the sales are daily increasing. Send another supply immediately."
DR. HAYDEN, Feb. 12, 1853.—Dr. Clements—Sir, please send me the other two bottles of Hooftland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, agreeably to our arrangement. I have received more benefit from what I have taken of your Bitters, than from any other medicine which I have been afflicted for eight years with than from any and all other medicines I have taken, put them all together.

Respectfully, &c. N. S. REYNOLDS.

JACOB C. PERRY, Postmaster, North Salem, Hendricks county, writes:

R.R.R. LIFE AND DEATH.

The Mysteries of disease laid open to the people.

Health is the Principle of Life; Disease is the principle of Death.

The R. R. R. Remedies possess the great power to reverse the human system of health and long life, and to free the human frame from pains, aches and all bodily infirmities.

The art of preserving health and the method of curing diseases by the R. R. R.'s

Radway's Ready Relief

Is to be used in all cases where there is pain, internally, it will allay the most torturing ache, pains, cramps, spasms, burns, scalds, &c., and quicker than Morphine, Calomel, or Veratrine, or any other anodyne or remedy that has ever been used by medical men.

It is safer than these dangerous remedies. The public will bear in mind that Calomel, Morphine, Opium, &c., only take the pain by stopping the system, so that the body with its faculties loses the power of feeling, and that after the influence of these narcotics has passed from the system, the pain again breaks out with its terrible power, with renewed violence.

Radway's Ready Relief stops the pain and removes the cause of the disease that occasions it; it infuses new life into the weak and diseased parts. It braces up a moribund system, a system of reaction of health and strength in place of pain, weakness and disease.

As a counter irritant, Radway's Ready Relief is to be used for a length of time, the body with its faculties is inflammation or congestion, it will instantly scatter the congested blood, equalize the circulation, and in a few minutes the most excruciating pains are removed, and the patient is again in the enjoyment of health.
